OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, two hundred twenty-two years ago, representatives to the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia established one of the most enduring documents in history: the Constitution of the United States; and

Whereas, the work of the delegates to the Constitutional Convention was successful and they produced a document that is the foundation of our liberty; and

Whereas, during Constitution Week, our Nation reflects on the significance of our Constitution and we honor the men and women who have supported and defended it throughout our history; and

Whereas, on Citizenship Day, we reaffirm our commitment to freedom, to ensuring that our history endures, and to instilling in America's next generation the values that make our country great;

Now, therefore, I, Brad Henry, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim September 17, 2010, as

"Citizenship Day"

and the week beginning September 17 and ending September 23, 2010, as

"Constitution Week"

in the State of Oklahoma, and urge State and local officials, as well as leaders of civic and social and educational organizations, to conduct ceremonies and programs that celebrate our Constitution and reaffirm our rights and obligations as citizens of our great Nation.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.
