OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Edna Faye Snow has spent over Fourteen (14) years in continuous volunteer service to the Emergency Food Pantry, as well as other community services to Chickasha, Oklahoma, including Mobile Meals and Corresponding Secretary of Central Assembly of God Church; and

WHEREAS, Edna Faye Snow has been involved with the Emergency Food Pantry as the Manager of the Pantry, and continues to be instrumental to its ongoing operation. She orders the food, stocks the shelves, coordinates the schedule and notifies the volunteers for the month of those who give out the food, and also works several days each week at the Pantry, as well as filling in for the volunteers who are unable to work on their designated day. Over the years, the Grady County community has received the benefit of this important service, improving the quality of life of many individuals. It has been sustained by the vision and generosity of the community and its volunteers; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Oklahoma join me in extending recognition and appreciation to Edna Faye Snow for her instrumental role in the success of the Emergency Food Pantry. The success embodied in the Emergency Food Pantry is a source of pride for all Oklahomans; and

WHEREAS, this is an appropriate time to express admiration to Edna Faye Snow for her untiring dedication and devotion; and

NOW therefore, I, Brad Henry, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim Saturday, December 25, 2010, as in the State of Oklahoma.

“Edna Faye Snow Day”

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.
