OKLAHOMA SECRETARY
OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, the health and well-being of all Americans depend upon the knowledge, competence and compassion of members of the Allied Health Professions who share responsibility for the delivery of evaluative, diagnostic, therapeutic and rehabilitation services in the health care system; and

Whereas, Allied Health Professionals practice collaboratively as members of multidisciplinary service delivery teams in the provision of comprehensive care and service unequalled in global health care and as researchers in evaluation and treatment of disease and conditions which adversely affect many Americans, and as teachers dedicated to the preparation of future Allied Health Professionals to meet the health care needs in the 21st century; and

Whereas, through this dedication, commitment and investment of intellect, members of the Allied Health Professions make a vital contribution to the quality and excellence of health care service delivery, health education and health science research;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim the week of November 6th through November 12th, 2011 as in the State of Oklahoma.

"Allied Health Professions Week"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.
