OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, Martin Luther King, Jr. was born in Atlanta, Georgia on January 15, 1929; and

Whereas, Martin Luther King, Jr. was a preeminent civil rights leader who awakened the nation's conscience to the need for social, political and economic freedom for Black people through nonviolent protest; and

Whereas, the eloquence of Martin Luther King, Jr. on behalf of Black people and all minorities helped America to have a dream of a nation where all people can live and work together as one; and

Whereas, the death of Martin Luther King, Jr. was a great loss to all who believe in freedom and equality for all men and women;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim Monday, January 16, 2012 as in the State of Oklahoma, and join with other states throughout this nation in honoring the memory of Martin Luther King, Jr. on this day.

"Martin Luther King, Jr. Day"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

ATTEST:

Assistant SECRETARY OF STATE

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 1st day of December in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and eleven, and of the State of Oklahoma in the One hundred and fourth year.
