OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, the Oklahoma Foundation for Medical Quality (OFMQ), an Oklahoma based nonprofit organization dedicated to improving healthcare quality, is celebrating 40 years of service to the citizens of Oklahoma; and

Whereas, OFMQ and the people of Oklahoma are concerned with quality, cost, access to and safety of healthcare; and

Whereas, improved healthcare outcomes result in better quality of life and decreased healthcare costs which ultimately benefit the citizens of Oklahoma; and

Whereas, healthcare quality professionals make positive contributions to healthcare by educating, monitoring processes and outcomes, analyzing data to facilitate improved systems, helping to integrate new evidence-based practices, maintaining high ethical standards and leading continual improvement initiatives in the varied healthcare organizations that provide services to the citizens of Oklahoma; and

Whereas, the delivery of high quality, cost-effective and safe healthcare to its citizens is important to the State of Oklahoma;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim the week of October 14th through October 20th, 2012 as in the State of Oklahoma.

"Oklahoma Healthcare Quality Week"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 31st day of August, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and twelve, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and fourth year.
