Whereas, this tradition started in our state's early territorial days and has continued to the present; and

Whereas, the Oklahoma Law Enforcement Hall of Fame has been created to recognize and honor selected historical and contemporary Oklahoma law enforcement "legions"; and

Whereas, on Saturday, January 12, 2013, the fourth class will be inducted into the Hall of Fame; and

Whereas, the membership in this class consists of the following:

Historical

U.S. Marshal Heck Bruner and OHP Captain Dan Combs

Contemporary

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim January 12, 2013 as in the State of Oklahoma, and request all citizens of our great state reflect on the lives and service of these and the thousands of other dedicated "lawmen" of Oklahoma. We have all been the beneficiaries of their honor, duty and service.

"Oklahoma Law Enforcement Hall of Fame Day"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 7th day of December, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and twelve, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and fifth year.
