OKLAHOMA SECRETARY
OF STATE

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, Turner Syndrome (TS) is a non-inheritable chromosomal disorder that affects one in 2,500 live female births; and

Whereas, earlier diagnosis will help these girls and women get a complete cardiac screening; and

Whereas, risk for acute aortic dissection is increased by more than 100-fold in young and middle-aged women with TS; and

Whereas, early diagnosis facilitates prevention or remediation of growth failure, hearing problems and learning difficulties; and

Whereas, individuals with TS have an increased risk of non-verbal learning disorder (NLD) and in school and work, these impairments can cause problems in math, visual spatial skills, executive function skills and job retention; and

Whereas, with the help of medical specialists, research and a good social support system, a woman with TS can live a happy, healthy life; and

Whereas, the establishment of Turner Syndrome Awareness Month will also provide the opportunity to share experience and information with the public and the media, in order to raise public awareness about Turner Syndrome;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim the month of February 2013 as in the State of Oklahoma.

"Turner Syndrome Awareness Month"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 11th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and thirteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and fifth year.
