OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, family and consumer sciences professionals and students are dedicated to ensuring the well-being of individuals, families, and communities throughout the state of Oklahoma; and

Whereas, family and consumer sciences professionals include elementary, secondary, post-secondary, and extension educators and administrators and other professionals in government, business and nonprofit sectors and students who are in elementary, secondary, and post-secondary education who are committed to using interdisciplinary and preventive perspectives in addressing the issues surrounding individuals and families as consumers; and

Whereas, family and consumer sciences professionals and students contribute to the health, productivity, and fulfillment of our residents by providing practical knowledge about the fundamentals of everyday life, including human growth and development, personal behavior, housing and the environment, food and nutrition, apparel and textiles, and resource management;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim February 20, 2013 as in the State of Oklahoma and encourage all Oklahomans to recognize Family and Consumer Sciences professionals and students for their many contributions to the continued well-being of the residents of the state of Oklahoma.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 25th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and thirteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and fifth year.
