Whereas, volunteers plant seeds of kindness throughout the state; and

Whereas, they graciously nurture the beauty of serving others; and

Whereas, volunteers cultivate the lives of children, families and older persons in the community; and

Whereas, they tirelessly and selflessly donate millions of volunteer hours; and

Whereas, they are increasingly recognized as an important partner with government and industry in providing service to the state of Oklahoma; and

Whereas, anyone can be a volunteer and reap the rich rewards that stem from doing for others;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim the month of April 2013 as

"Volunteer Month"

in the State of Oklahoma.
