OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, the Oklahoma Foundation for Medical Quality (OFMQ), an Oklahoma based nonprofit organization, is dedicated to improving healthcare quality; and

Whereas, OFMQ and the people of Oklahoma are concerned with quality and cost, as well as access to and safety of healthcare; and

Whereas, improved healthcare outcomes result in better quality of life and decreased healthcare costs, which ultimately benefit the citizens of Oklahoma; and

Whereas, healthcare quality professionals make positive contributions by educating, monitoring processes and outcomes, analyzing data to facilitate improved systems, helping to integrate new evidence-based practices, maintaining high ethical standards and leading continual improvement initiatives in the varied healthcare organizations that provide services to the citizens of Oklahoma; and

Whereas, the delivery of high quality, cost-effective and safe healthcare to its citizens is important to the state of Oklahoma;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim October 20th through October 26th, 2013 as in the state of Oklahoma.

"Oklahoma Healthcare Quality Week"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 23rd day of September, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and thirteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and fifth year.
