OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, throughout our nation's proud military history, courageous women of the American Armed Forces have served with honor and distinction – from the Revolutionary War, to the Civil War, to the Global War on Terrorism; and

Whereas, there are more than 25,000 women veterans residing in the state of Oklahoma along with active, reserve and National Guard female military personnel who are currently involved in military operations around the world; and

Whereas, women have safeguarded our heritage through generations of courage, selflessness and dedication to duty, and have contributed to restoring and maintaining peace around the world and they deserve our greatest gratitude; and

Whereas, the citizens of Oklahoma wish to show our appreciation for the many contributions of all our military women who have served with honor, past and present;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim October 26, 2013 as in the state of Oklahoma.

“Oklahoma Women Veterans Recognition Day”

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 15th day of October, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and thirteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and fifth year.
