OKLAHOMA SECRETARY OF STATE

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, alienating behaviors are most often found in high-conflict divorce and custody situations; and

Whereas, these behaviors, such as speaking negatively about a parent to or in front of a child, interfering, such as denying communication and visitation, and discussing inappropriate information with a child, such as details of the marriage, financial matters, and court proceedings cannot only destroy the bond between a loving parent and child, but can cause mental and emotional harm to the child; and

Whereas, parental alienation takes advantage of the suggestibility and dependency of children; and

Whereas, parental alienation deprives children of their right to love and be loved by both parents; and

Whereas, parental alienation is considered harmful to children as the alienating tactics used on the children are bullying, confusing, frightening, and rob children of their sense of security; and

Whereas, professionals agree that the problem of parental alienation is damaging to children and can affect them into adulthood with tragic consequences; and

Whereas, with awareness comes education and understanding and the power to stop the abuse of innocent children caught in the crossfire of the people they love;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim April 25, 2014 as in the state of Oklahoma.

"Parental Alienation Awareness Day"

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 25th day of February, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and fourteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and sixth year.
