

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, cardiovascular diseases cause one in three women's deaths each year, killing approximately one woman every minute; and

Whereas, heart disease kills more women than all forms of cancer combined, but is often undiagnosed; and

Whereas, when it comes to beating heart disease and stroke, change can be the cure. To save lives and raise awareness regarding this serious issue, the American Heart Association launched Go Red For Women® and the red dress has become the iconic symbol of our battle against heart disease and stroke in women.

Whereas, the American Heart Association's Go Red For Women® movement has been impacting the health of women for 11 years, more than 627,000 women's lives have been saved, and 330 fewer women are dying every day; and

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby proclaim Friday, February 5, 2015, as in the state of Oklahoma and urge all citizens to show their support for women and the fight against heart disease.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this twentieth day of January, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and fifteen and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and seventh year.
