Proclamation

Whereas, Oral Roberts University (ORU) was chartered in 1963 and built upon the belief of educating the whole person – spirit, mind and body; and

Whereas, ORU prides itself in being a global institution having educated students from all over the world; and

Whereas, founder of ORU, Chancellor Oral Roberts, had a vision for his students to “go into every person’s world,” and many alumni still embody that directive; and

Whereas, ORU is a charismatic university, founded in the fires of evangelism and upon the unchanging precepts of the Bible; and

Whereas, the dedicated students, faculty, staff and alumni of Oral Roberts University have made lasting contributions to our state through their efforts as individuals and cooperatively for generations; and

Whereas, during the third week of October, the University will celebrate its 50th Anniversary and homecoming festivities;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor, do hereby proclaim October 23, 2015, as

“ORU 50th Anniversary Global Celebration Day”
