

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, Oklahoma is well-known around the world for its rich history and Native American culture; and

Whereas, the state of Oklahoma is home to thirty-eight federally recognized tribes; and

Whereas, Native American men and women contribute to all areas of life in Oklahoma – including government, business, arts and sciences, medicine, law enforcement and our armed services; and

Whereas, Native American Heritage Month is an occasion to recognize the thousands of Native Americans in Oklahoma whose abilities and contributions strengthen our economy, enrich our culture, and invigorate our local communities; and

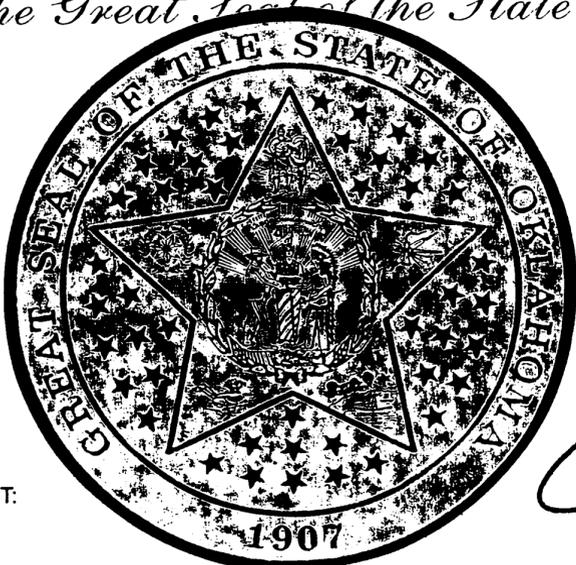

Whereas, it is fitting and proper to recognize the limitless potential of our tribal nations and the essential role Native Americans play in advancing our state;

Now, therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor, do hereby proclaim November 2015 as in the state of Oklahoma.

“Native American Heritage Month”

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 29th day of October, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and fifteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and seventh year.
