

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, veterinary technicians are essential members of veterinary health care teams and are important in the effort to provide quality animal care; and

Whereas, through the use of scientific knowledge and skills, veterinary technicians protect animals and prevent or relieve animal suffering; and

Whereas, veterinary technicians often work behind the scenes, in animal clinics and hospitals providing nursing care, surgical assistance, radiography, and other critical care for animals; and

Whereas, many veterinary technicians work within shelters, stables, and reproductive facilities to ensure that animals are being treated fairly; and

Whereas, National Veterinary Technician Week is an opportunity to thank veterinary technicians and honor their commitment to compassionate, high-quality veterinary care for animals;

Now, Therefore, I, Mary Fallin, Governor, do hereby proclaim the week of October 16, 2016, as in the state of Oklahoma.

“Veterinary Technician Week”

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this 13th day of October, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and sixteen, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one hundred and eighth year.
