Re: Ballot Title for State Question No. 776, Legislative Referendum No. 367

Dear Sirs:

In accordance with the provisions of 34 O.S.2011, § 9(C), we have reviewed the Proposed Ballot Title for the above-referenced State Question and conclude that it does not comply with applicable laws for the following reasons:

1. The statutorily required function of a ballot's title is to explain the effect of the proposition. Here, the Proposed Ballot Title fails to fully explain the effect of the proposition. Instead, it state that it adds a new section to the Oklahoma Constitution, Section 9A of Article 2, and simply reports what the proposition states, and

2. The final sentence of the Proposed Ballot Title incorrectly reports that “[i]t states that the death penalty is not cruel and unusual punishment.” No such general statement appears in the proposition.

Having found that the ballot title does not comply with applicable laws, I have, in accordance with the provisions of 34 O.S.2011, § 9(C), prepared the enclosed Preliminary Ballot Title which complies with the law.

Sincerely,

Dear Sirs:

Having found that the Proposed Ballot Title for the above-referenced state question did not comply with applicable laws and having prepared and filed a Preliminary Ballot Title more than ten business days ago, in accordance with 34 O.S. 2011, § 9(C), we have prepared the following Final Ballot Title for the above-referenced State Question. As a Title 34 ballot title review, the following does not constitute an Attorney General Opinion on the merits or constitutionality of the underlying proposed changes in the law, nor the ability of federal law to preempt the changes in the law. The Final Ballot Title reads as follows:

BALLOT TITLE FOR STATE QUESTION NO. 776
