

2015 RULEMAKING ACTIONS - IMPORTANT DATES AND DEADLINES

SESSION DATES

The 2015 legislative session will convene on Tuesday, January 6, and recess until Monday, February 2. The Legislature will adjourn sine die no later than Friday, May 29.

PUBLISHING NRI'S FOR 2015 RULEMAKING

For 2015 permanent rules, agencies should be able to publish a Notice of Rulemaking Intent (NRI) in the Register as late as February 17 (submission deadline January 23) and still have enough time to complete a 30-day comment period, hold a public hearing, adopt the rules, and submit them to the Legislature and Governor via the State Online Filing System by April 1 (see April Fool's Deadline below). However, be aware that, in some cases, an even earlier publication date may be needed (see ¹ below).

¹ If your agency's rules are adopted by a board or commission, rather than an individual officer (like the State Treasurer or Secretary of State), the meeting schedule of the board/commission must also be considered. In some cases, because of board/commission meeting dates, the February 17 issue may be too late for publishing the NRI --- e.g., if the board or commission is not scheduled to meet between March 19 (the last day of the 30-day comment period for an NRI published on February 17) and April 1, the NRI would need to be published in an earlier issue of the Register, to allow enough time for the 30-day comment period/public hearing to be completed and the board/commission to adopt the rules by April 1. [For earlier issue dates/deadlines, see schedule of Register Publication Dates/Filing Deadlines Volume 32 at <https://www.sos.ok.gov/oar/info.aspx>.]

EXECUTIVE ORDER 2013-34 REMINDER

Pursuant to Executive Order 2013-34, every agency must, contemporaneously with filing an NRI with OAR, email a copy of the proposed permanent rule language to the agency's Cabinet Secretary and the Governor's office.

APRIL FOOL'S DEADLINE/REVIEW PERIODS

April 1 is a critical date in the permanent rulemaking process:

- REVIEW PERIOD if filed on or before April 1 - If proposed permanent rules are adopted and submitted for legislative review on or before April 1 (and within 10 days after adoption), the Legislature will have until the end of the current legislative session to review the rules.
- REVIEW PERIOD if filed after April 1 - If proposed permanent rules are adopted and submitted for legislative review after April 1 (and within 10 days after adoption), the Legislature will have until the end of the next legislative session to review the rules.

LEGISLATIVE APPROVAL/DISAPPROVAL

Proposed permanent rules can be approved or disapproved, in whole or in part, by joint or omnibus resolution of the Legislature² at any time during the review period (to determine "review period," see April Fool's Deadline above).

² Note, however, that joint and omnibus resolutions must not only be passed by both houses of the Legislature, but must also be signed by the Governor before the rules can be considered approved/disapproved - or, if vetoed by the Governor, the Legislature must override the gubernatorial veto. So, the mere passage of a joint or omnibus resolution approving your rules by both the House and the Senate does not constitute legislative approval of your rules.

FINAL ADOPTION

The rules are considered finally adopted when the Governor signs the Legislature's joint or omnibus resolution approving the rules - or when both houses of the Legislature have voted to override a veto of the resolution. However, if the Legislature fails to pass an omnibus resolution prior to the end of any legislative session, the Governor may issue a Governor's Declaration declaring proposed permanent rules approved and finally adopted. A Governor's Declaration must be published in the Register no later than July 17 (in 2015, the mid-July issue of the Register will be published on July 15, with a submission deadline of June 25).
