Emergency Adoptions

"If an agency finds that a rule is necessary as an emergency measure, the rule may be promulgated" if the Governor approves the rules after determining "that the rule is necessary as an emergency measure to do any of the following:

- a. protect the public health, safety or welfare,
- b. comply with deadlines in amendments to an agency's governing law or federal programs,
- c. avoid violation of federal law or regulation or other state law,
- d. avoid imminent reduction to the agency's budget, or
- e. avoid serious prejudice to the public interest." [75 O.S., Section 253(A)]

An emergency rule is considered promulgated immediately upon approval by the Governor, and effective immediately upon the Governor's approval or a later date specified by the agency in the emergency rule document. An emergency rule expires on September 15 following the next regular legislative session after its promulgation, or on an earlier date specified by the agency, if not already superseded by a permanent rule or terminated through legislative action as described in 75 O.S., Section 253(H)(2).

Emergency rules are not published in the Oklahoma Administrative Code; however, a source note entry, which cites to the Register publication of the emergency action, is added to the Code upon promulgation of a superseding permanent rule or expiration/termination of the emergency action.

For additional information on the emergency rulemaking process, see 75 O.S., Section 253.

FINDING OF EMERGENCY:

The purpose of the proposed emergency rule amendments is to prohibit the importation or possession of exotic swine. Exotic swine include warhogs, red river hogs, and other exotic species of swine. The risk of exotic swine escaping captivity poses a potential harm the public health, safety, economy, and environment in Oklahoma. A feral population of exotic swine would damage human and livestock health, public and private property, agriculture, forestry, and other natural resources. Accordingly, the proposed emergency rule is necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare.

As a result of the foregoing, the State Board of Agriculture determined that an emergency exists requiring amendments to the Department's current rules on the subject.

GIST/ANALYSIS:

The proposed emergency rule amendments (1) define exotic swine and (2) prohibit the possession or importation of exotic swine.
